Summer School. Summer school letters will be mailed this week and registration is now open. Summer school will be held virtually this year with classes being conducted on Zoom. All summer school students must attend the Zoom classes. There will be no paper packets.

Final Report Cards. Final report cards are schedule to be mailed on June 24. You may see your child’s grades earlier by accessing ParentVue. Please remember, in order to pass their courses for the year, students must engage in the distance learning plan for the course.
