

Norfolk Public Schools
The cornerstone of a proudly diverse community

Spring Semester
2020-21

Granby High Evening School

GHEs offers courses for initial and recovery credit for students working toward a high school diploma. Programs are also available for students wanting to earn a GED through the ISAEP program or an Adult High School Diploma.

PROGRAMS

OFFERED FOR:

- Term Graduates
- Fifth-year Seniors
- Non-traditionals
- Continuing Education
- SOL/Credentials Retakes

PROGRAMS:

- High School Credit Courses
- Gradpoint
- ISAEP
- Adult Education

LEARNING MODELS

Synchronous and Asynchronous instruction

Virtual Instruction – Zoom/Canvas/Google Classroom

Hybrid/Blended- rotating in-person classes along with Canvas and Google Classroom.

Traditional Evening Classes – In-person

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Semester courses – 18 and 36 weeks

All classes held in the evening, including ISAEP

- Instructional schedule convenient for students who work or have other obligations during the day.

Gradpoint

- Students are assigned mentors

Cost – No cost for spring semester 2020-21

18-Week Semester Courses (1 Credit)

Algebra functions, Algebra I, Geometry, Computer Information Systems, English 12, Biology, Government, World Studies, Business Management, Business Law, Principles of Business Marketing, and Economics and Personal Finance. Other high school courses in English, Math, Science, Social Sciences and select electives are offered within the 36-week format.

For more information, contact Dr. Morris nmorris@nps.k12.va.us
451-4110 ext. 1138