MILITARY RESOURCE CENTER

Military Resource Center

Regent's Military Resource Center (MRC) remains dedicated to empowering the military community. We provide support and resources that will assist you in your transition to student life. We will also help you develop academically and professionally while you grow spiritually.

Whether you're a soldier, sailor, airman, Marine, Coast Guardsman or military family member, you can achieve your goals as part of the Regent family.

What Makes Regent University Military Friendly?

- Our dedicated Military Resource Center is ready to serve as your one-stop academic assistance.
- Access to free professional counseling, coaching and tutoring; military benefits advising; academic advising; dedicated veteran collaboration, study and lounge space; career counseling and preparation; military community events, and more.
- Designated a Green Zone campus, Regent's faculty and staff advocate on behalf of our military-affiliated students and provide support and information about available resources.

"Regent is a place where you can pursue learning and the truth with real intensity."

NROTC PREPARATORY PROGRAM (NPP) SCHOLARSHIP

A Different Way to Prepare You for ROTC Success

Some students show great promise through their grades, activities, and character. Yet, their standardized test scores and/or financial challenges limit their ability to compete for and commission through traditional Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) scholarships. Does this sound like you?

The NROTC Preparatory Program (NPP) at Regent University opens access and prepares you for success to earn a commission in the Navy. In fact, the very mission of this program is to enhance midshipman candidates' moral, mental, and physical foundations.

Benefits You'll Enjoy as an NPP Scholarship Recipient Include:

Tuition, fees, and on-campus room and board for a one-year NROTC preparation program as midshipman candidate.

Guaranteed NROTC scholarships for up to four additional years, based on successful completion of the NPP.

Regent University - Navy Partnership

Through the NPP, Regent University will take you through a life-changing year of gaining excellent educational traction, as well as a principled foundation. At the same time, you'll be mentored and trained by the Navy. Together, we'll prepare you for NROTC and leadership success.

REQUIREMENTS:

Successfully complete a Department of Defense medical exam and NROTC indoctrination training

Pursue a science / technical major (Tier 1 / Tier 2 - will consider other majors as slots allow)

Maintain greater than a 2.8 GPA

Pass the Navy's Physical Fitness Assessment once a semester with a score of "Good Low" or better

Maintain good standing within the ROTC unit

Reside in Regent's on-campus housing

Your Pathway to Leadership & Service

Earn your college education, become a stronger leader, and establish a rewarding career path through Military Commissioning Programs. Available at Regent University, these programs include:

- Army ROTC
- Navy/USMC ROTC
- Marine Corps PLC

STAND OUT AS A COMMISSIONED OFFICER

Our military programs allow students to earn their academic degree while developing greater physical health and stronger character. As a commissioned officer, you are granted special trust and confidence by the President of the United States and Senate to support and defend the U.S. Constitution and our nation's freedoms.

REGENT ARMY & NAVY ROTC OPPORTUNITIES

Provided in partnership with the Hampton Roads Consortium together with ODU, NSU, HU and VWU.

As a Regent ROTC cadet or midshipman, you will complete degree coursework at Regent University while completing your military or naval science classes, physical fitness training, and other military requirements through our partner schools. You'll also receive:

The same Regent tuition discounts offered to active-duty service members—which could mean little or no out-of-pocket costs for you. Discounts could include tuition reduced to $250 per credit hour, plus a $100 bookstore credit and a $250 stipend per semester.

World-class education with a unique integration of faith.

Practical leadership training.

Status as a U.S. Army, Army Reserve, Army National Guard, Navy or Marine Corps officer upon commissioning.

EARLY COLLEGE PROGRAM

Early College Program

Get a jumpstart on college through Regent University's Early College Program. This leading dual-enrollment option gives you the opportunity to engage in challenging coursework and earn college credits — at a substantial discount — while still in high school!

Rewarding Educational Performance (REP) Program

Regent is proud to announce the Rewarding Educational Performance (REP) Program which recognizes academic excellence within our Early College Program. To demonstrate our commitment to your educational performance, when you enroll as an Early College student at Regent University, you'll become eligible to participate in this tuition-reward program — valued up to $4,650!

To reap the benefits of this program, each time you complete a course with a "B" or better (up to 30 credit hours), Regent will match the tuition cost of the course and reserve those matched dollars in a scholarship fund just for you*. Upon high school graduation, enroll as a degree-seeking student within our College of Arts & Sciences. You can immediately redeem your scholarship during your first semester of classes.

Applying is Easy!

To apply for the Early College program, fill out the Early College application via the Regent website, and submit your high school or homeschool transcript. Please direct any questions about Early College or the Regent REP Program to undergrad@regent.edu or 757.352.4960.

Once accepted, you will work with an academic advisor who will help you succeed. They will assist you with registration and course selection, as well as provide valuable resources and caring support.
