

NEWCOMERS ENGLISH CAMP

The French American School and Crossroads School invite you to join the Newcomers English Camp

Camp will run over six sessions on the following dates:

August 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 20th, and 21st

Make friends, get or improve the basics of English, know the school's staff, start your journey with confidence.

- The camp is designed to teach non-English speaking children the fundamentals of English in terms of writing and speaking.
- This camp is open to any student for whom English is not their primary language.
- English and American culture lessons led by certified teachers who are native English speakers.
- The program provides a variety of engaging and enjoyable activities.
- Students will receive individual attention while learning and practicing English in small classes.
- Classroom instruction focuses on developing skills in reading, writing, listening, and speaking with emphasis on communicative English.
