

Hey 8th Grade Middle School Student!

Have you started thinking about high school next year?
Have you thought about a career in health science...Perhaps becoming a nurse, physician, pharmacist, psychologist or maybe even a physical therapist?
Have you earned a B (or better) in high school credit in math and science during your middle school years? Do you earn A's & B's in all your classes?
Well, the Medical and Health Specialties Program @ Maury High School might be just the ticket for you!
