

YOUNG SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Information Session

Young Scholars is Norfolk Public Schools' middle years specialty program for highly motivated learners identified as gifted*. This "school-within-a-school" is housed at Rosemont Middle School with specially trained faculty who provide researched-based instruction that is challenging and differentiated.

Students must be identified gifted in General Intellectual Aptitude (GIA), or Specific Academic Ability in Math, English, or both to be considered.*

Thursday, Nov. 21
6:30 PM at
Rosemont Middle School

1330 Branch Road
Norfolk, VA 23513

Ask yourself...

Are you curious about many things and love to learn?

Do you prefer learning at your own pace, in your own way?

Are you willing to accept leadership roles and collaborate well with others?

Are you open minded to alternative ideas?

Do you want to learn how to express your ideas more effectively?

Do you want to become an independent, self-directed learner?

Are you extremely motivated to achieve?

Then visit us to learn more!

For more information, contact:
Norfolk Public Schools
GIFTED EDUCATION &
ACADEMIC RIGOR SERVICES

7000 W. Tanners Creek Drive
Norfolk, VA 23513
(757) 852-4674 option 3