

Norfolk Public Schools

NPS Literacy Non-Negotiable: Teachers will provide learning experiences where every student reads, writes, communicates, and thinks critically in every classroom, in every school, everyday - no exceptions.

During Library Media students will be engaged by...

Reading

Students will be engaged in a variety of fiction and non-fiction, print and digital books, databases and online resources to advance life-long learning skills including the joy of reading, reading stamina, and comprehension across the curriculum.

Writing

Students will write to make visible their thoughts using strategies that maximize engagement including response journals, Sketchnotes and writing questions.

Literacy

Communicating

Students will speak for a variety of purposes that advance comprehension, student voice, and engagement including responding to questions and sharing in cooperative learning pairs and groups.

Thinking Critically

Students will use critical thinking skills guided by the National School Library Standards:
Shared Foundations (Inquire, Include, Collaborate, Curate, Explore, Engage)
Domains (Think, Create, Share, Grow)
