

Parents and Families of Larchmont Elementary,

It is great to see so many of our boys and girls back from Spring Break. All of our students are doing amazing work in the classroom and virtually. I continue to be astonished by their perseverance and resilience each and every day. Here are a few updates from our PTA and Military Family Life Counselor (MFLAC):

Hello Larchmont Leopards,

My name is Tyrone Obaseki, and I am the new Military Family Life Counselor (MFLC) for Larchmont Elementary School! I am happy to join you this school year! April is the month of the Military Child (MOMC)! I am excited to announce Purple Up Spirit Week for the week of April 19th – 23rd (Next Week). Feel free to view the flyer and participate in support of our young patriots! In addition to this, I am here to support military members by providing counseling services for DoD Military, Guard and Reserve, and their Family Members. Eligible participants may receive up to 12 non-medical counseling sessions per person, per issue annually at no cost to the participant. I am available to provide presentations to families or staff regarding different topics ranging from stress management to deployment and reunification, conflict resolution, etc. Feel free to reach me for further details.
